Johan Wilhelm Nyvall

On 3 February 1861 in Karlstad, Sweden,¹ Johan Wilhelm Nyvall was born to Johan Jonsson Nyvall and Maria Erlandsdotter.² In 1870, J.W. Nyvell and his mother immigrated to America³. Although one may wonder why his father was not listed on the immigration record, it is important to note that it was common for the head of the house to come to the United States before his family in order to establish a job and place of residency. Once in America, the Nyvall family settled in Lindsborg, Kansas, where Johan lived until he attended Augustana⁴. Once in the U.S., Johan helped welcome two brothers, Gustaf (1871-1902) and David (1874-1941).⁵ Johan was to have a younger sister, Julia, while still in Sweden, but she was born in 1863 and passed away in the same year.⁶ Many Swedish immigrants Americanized his/her name before attending school, including Johan, which he changed to John.⁷ The evidence of Johan's Americanized name was evident when he registered his official documentation at Augustana College in 1880 as John.⁸ Graduating in 1885 with a theology degree,⁹ John went on to be
